

Applications & Solutions

Medical Applications

We build medical instruments per customer specifications. We are registered with the FDA (#1222121). We produce autoclavable micro endoscopes as well as other medical optical devices. As with our industrial products, we can offer optical design, mechanical design, prototyping, low and high volume production.